

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

A Child is born for us, and a son is given to us, his sceptre of power rests upon his shoulder, and his name will be called Messenger of great counsel.

FIRST READING 52:7-10 , page 163

A reading from the prophet Isaiah,

All the ends of the earth shall see the saving power of our God.

How beautiful on the mountains, are the feet of one who brings happiness, proclaims salvation; and tell Zion. "Your God is king!"

Listen! Your watchmen raise their voices, they shout for joy together, for they see the Lord face to face, as he returns to Zion.

Break into shouts of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the Lord is consoling his people; redeeming Jerusalem.

The Lord bares his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Responsorial Psalm

All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter to Hebrews 1:1-6 page 164

In our own time, God speaks to us through his Son.

At various times in the past and in various different ways; God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets, but in our own time, the last days, he has spoken to us through his Son, the Son that he has appointed to inherit everything and through whom he made everything there is. He is the radiant light of God's glory and the perfect copy of his nature, sustaining the universe by his powerful command; and now that he has destroyed the defilement of sin, he has gone to take his place in heaven at the right hand of divine Majesty. So his is now far above the angels as the title which he has inherited is higher than their own name.

God has never said to any angel: You are my Son, today I have become your father, or: I will be a father to him and he a son to me. Again, when he brings the First born into the world, he says; Let all the angels of God worship him.

Gospel Acclamation Lk 2:10-11

Alleluia, alleluia!

A holy day has dawned upon us. Come, you nations and adore the Lord. Today a great light has come upon the earth. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John. 1:1-18

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us, and we saw his glory.

In the beginning was the Word: the Word was with God and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things came to be, not one thing had its being but through him. All that came to be had light of men, a light that shines in the dark, a light that darkness could not overpower.

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light.

The Word was the true light that enlightens all men; and he was coming into the world. He was in the world that had its being through him, and the world did not know him. He came to his own domain and his own people did not accept him. But to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to all who believe in the name of him who was born not out human stock or urge of the flesh or will of man but God himself.

The Word was made flesh, he lived among us, and we saw his glory, the glory that is his as the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

John appears as his witness. He proclaims "This is the one whom I said: He who comes after me ranks before me because he existed before me."

Indeed, from his fullness we have, all of us, received – yes, grace in return for grace, since, though the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth have come through Jesus Christ.

No one has ever God; it is only Son, who is nearest to the Father's heart, who has made him know.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Grant, O merciful God, that, just as the Saviour of the world, born this day, is the author of divine generation for us, so he may be the giver even of immortality.
