

The Baptism of the Lord – Year A (P 181)

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON cf, Mt 3:16-17

After the Lord was baptised, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered; This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased,

FIRST READING 42:1-4,6-7, page 182

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Here is my servant, my chosen one in whom I am well pleased.

Thus says the Lord:

Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom my soul delights. I have endowed him with my spirit that he may bring true justice to the nations.

He does not cry out or shout aloud, or make his voice heard in the streets. He does not break the crushed reed, not quench the wavering flame.

Faithfully he brings true justice; he will never waver, nor be crushed until true justice is established on earth, for the islands are awaiting his law.

I, the Lord, have called you to serve the cause of right; I have taken you by the hand and formed you; I have appointed you as covenant of the people and light of the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to free captives from prison, and those who live in darkness from the dungeon.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles, 10:34-38 page 183

God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: “The truth I have now come to realise” he said “ is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is accepted to him.

“It is true, God sent his word to the people of Israel, and it was to them that the good news of peace was brought by Jesus Christ – but Jesus Christ is Lord of all men. You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf, Lk 3:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

The heavens were opened and the Father’s voice was heard: this is my beloved Son, hear him.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Page 184 3:13-17

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mathew.

When Jesus was baptised, the heavens were opened and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John. John tried to dissuade him. “It is who need baptism from you.” He said “and yet you come to me!” But Jesus replied, “Leave it like this for the time being; it is fitting that we should, in this way, do all that righteousness demands. “ At this, John gave in to him.

As soon as Jesus was baptised he came up from the water, and suddenly the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on him. And a voice spoke from heaven, “This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him.”

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Behold the One of whom John said; I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Nourished with these sacred gifts, we humbly entreat your mercy, O Lord, that, faithfully listening to your Only Begotten Son, we may be your children in name and in truth.
